IFFA 2022 – Registration for Quality Competitions

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Colleagues,

The IFFA 2022 is around the corner. We kindly invite you to follow the leading trade fair of the meat processing industry from May 14th to 19th, 2022 in Frankfurt. Visit us and participate with your products in the international quality competitions. Attached you will find the documents with which you can register your samples.

Inform yourself at the world's leading exhibition on new trends, new equipment, new services, and everything else that is new and important for our industry. See where we are headed and how you can prepare yourself and your business for a successful future.

Many guilds offer trips amongst colleagues to the IFFA. Information can be obtained from your guild, your national association or the DFV.

We look forward to your visit at our booth and in the marketplace of the butcher's trade in Hall 12.0. Your elected representatives and the managing board of the DFV are available for you throughout the exhibition period.

Looking forward to seeing you at the IFFA!
